High quality internet marketing is the key to selling a home in today's challenging market and Eva has worked very hard to create a product that not only captures interested buyers immediately but allows them to literally preview her listings online through her 20 to 60 picture web pages.

"I believe in quality marketing and in showcasing a home to sell. The internet is the greatest development in real estate marketing and my website, MichiganHomes.net, is on the cutting edge."

Eva Morrow
